INOCULATION.

THE Subſcriber begs Leave to inform the Public, that he has opened a very convenient Houſe in a remote tho' pleaſant Situation, within three miles of New-Brunſwick, for the Reception of ſuch Perſons as propoſe taking the Small-Pox by Inoculation. The beſt Attendance will be given, and every Thing proper for their Accommodation ſhall be furniſhed, at a very low and eaſy Rate.

MANY are detered from being incoculated, on Account of ſore Arms, Boils and large Abſceſſes, often attending the common Method of treating the Diſeaſe, but more particularly from the ill Effects of the too free and indiſcriminate Uſe of Mercury, by which, many (tho' they recover the Small-Pox, yet the Conſtitution being injured,) ſoon fall Victims to ſome other Malady.

ALL theſe Inconveniences are avoided by a particular Method of preparing the Patient, the moſt efficacous and the leaſt detrimental to the Conſtitution, by the Manner of conveying the Infection, and by the ſubſequent Treatment of the Diſeaſe, without the leaſt Confinement; the Advantages of which have been fully and clearly demonſtrated in upwards of 400 Perſons under the Subſcribers Care in the ſpace of a few Months, laſt Winter and Spring, without the Misfortune of loſing any; nor has there died more than one of that Number ſince, which plainly ſhews the ſingular Advantages of this Method.

A ſufficient Number to make it worth his While, in any Part of the Country not contiguous to a Perſon properly qualified, (I don't mean authoriſed) ſhall be waited on, at a ſhort Notice, by the Publick's

Moſt obedient humble Servant,

NEW-BRUNSWICK, JOHN COCHRAN.

Little need be ſaid to ſhew how advantageous this Scheme is to the Adventurer, as there are not two Blanks to a Prize, and the loweſt Prizes are double the Value of a Ticket, which may draw Three Thouſand and One Hundred Dollars; this, with the benevolent Purpoſes to which the Profits ariſing from the Lottery, are to be appropriated, 'tis hoped will induce the Public to encourage it.

TICKETS are to be had from the Managers, from Doctor John M'Kinly, in Wilmington, and from James Van Dyke, Eſq; at Dover.——Orders for Tickets left with any of the above named Gentlemen will be carefully forwarded.

☞ THE Managers of the NEW-CASTLE LOTTERY, in Behalf of the Preſbyterian Congregations of New-Caſtle and New-York, &c. thank the PUBLIC for the Encouragement it has given to that Scheme; and as there are but a few Tickets unſold, they expect to draw that Lottery on the Time fixed: therefore thoſe that intend to become Adventurers in it, are deſired to apply in Time.

19 22 JOHN DURKEE.

MILAN, October 22.

ON the 16th inſtant, the day after the marriage of the Archduke Ferdinand with the Princeſs Maria Beatrice d'Eſt was celebrated here, 200 young women were married, and each of them received a purſe of 30 crowns, by order of the Empreſs-Queen. The public diverſions upon this occaſion continued for ſeveral days. A ſcaffold fell down one day, with about 50 perſons upon it, ſeveral of whom were hurt, but only one girl loſt her life.

Conſtantinople, Oct. 3. Letters from Salonica of the 23d of Sept. laſt, adviſe, that Count Orlow had appeared before Negropont with ſeveral men of war and bomb veſſels, and diſpoſitions were made as if he intended to attack the Fortreſs, but that his only aim was to draw all the Turks in the Iſland to defend the ſaid place, to the end that the troops which he had landed on the north part of the Iſle to procure proviſions, might ſeize and embark, without any obſtacle, as much grain and cattle as they wanted. Theſe letters add, that the general, after having accompliſhed this object, put to ſea with all his fleet conſiſting of 40 ſail, and arrived on the 19th of September before the Peninſula of Baſſadra, probably to ſeek proviſions there, and alſo at Mounte-Santo.

Further advice informs us, that Count Orlow bombarded during three days the Town of Cavalla, on the coaſt of Macedonia; and that he hath delivered up to be pillaged the Town of Orſana, on the ſame coaſt, where he found a Magazine of corn, part of which he carried off, and burnt the reſt.

POLAND.

Warſaw Oct. 19. According to the letter which the Field Maſhal Count de Romanzow lately wrote to Mr. Saldron, the Ruſſian Ambaſſador at this Court, a certain Prince Emanuel, whom the Turks have elected Prince of Walantember, when Lieut. Col. Fabricius defeated, at Rymnick, near Olta, a body of 3000 Turks. This Prince commanded the corps in perſon, of which 600 men were killed on the ſpot, and 40, among whom were two Agas, were made priſoners. The Ruſſians two ſtaffs, two ſtandards, the Prince's turban, with the enſigns of his dignity, his equipages, and all the baggage of the principal officers and Baiards of Walachia; they alſo burnt a large magazine which the Turks had at Rymnick. This action coſt the Ruſſians only 23 killed and 66 wounded.

Vencie Oct. 19. Five ſaiques, laden with proviſions for Conſtantinople, have been taken by two large Ruſſian men of war off the Iſland of Cyprus.

Warſaw. Oct. 30. There is advice that the Plague is broke out again at Podolia, extends even beyond the Frontier. The Ruſſian Garriſon of Ibrahilow, and alſo that of Iſmael, are ſaid to be infected with the Contagion. This circumſtance may probably forward the Negotiation of peace between Ruſſia and the Porte.

GERMANY.

Vienna, Oct. 30. We hear from Prague, that the Jews, who farmed the Tobacco there, have been all arreſted at the ſame moment, and a ſeal put on their papers and Magazines. It is ſaid they were clandeſtinely ſending corn out of the kingdom: Their accomplices in this city are in great conſternation, as a guard is kept over them, till ſome further diſcoveries can be made.

Hamburgh Nov. 8. The epidemical diſtemper among the horned cattle has entirely ceaſed in our environs; but we learn from the county of Hoya, that it continues to make exceſſive ravage there.

ITALY.

Leghorn Nov 1. His Royal Highneſs the Duke of Glouceſter continues to recover daily, and we are in hopes ſoon to have the happineſs of ſeeing his health perfectly re-eſtabliſhed.

NETHERLANDS.

Oſtand Nov. 16. The diſtemper among the horned cattle continues to rage in this neighbourhood. Orders have been given, by way of trial, to ſuſpend for ſix weeks the ſlaughter of the ſick cattle.

LONDON, November 20.

Yeſterday came on before the Barons of the Exchequer at Weſtminſter-hall, the great cauſe between Sir James Lowther, Bart. plaintiff, and the Duke of Portland, defendant, in conſequence of a grant made to Sir James Lowther of the foreſt of Inglewood, in the year 1767, of lands being for upwards of ſeventy years in the poſſeſſion of the family of the Duke of Portland. Their Lordſhips came into Court about nine o'clock and after waiting near an hour for Baron Adams the Chief Baron received a letter from his Lordſhip, informing him of the impoſſibility of his attending the Court that day, on account of the death of Lady Adams. The Court then entered into the buſineſs of the day, and recited all the records and prerogatives of the Crown from Edward the Firſt to the leaſe made to Sir James Lowther; when, after a full, candid, and moſt impartial examination of the ſaid leaſe, it was found invalid, agreeable to the ſtatute made in the firſt year of Queen Anne, which reciles, "that after every grant, ceaſe, or effluxus, there be reſerved a reaſonable rent, not being under the third part of the clear yearly value of ſuch of the ſaid manors, meſſuages, lands, &c. &c. as ſhall be contained in ſuch leaſe or grant." Sir James Lowther's grant from the Crown being only a quitrent of 13l. 4d. for the whole foreſt of Inglewood, was immediately judged by the Court an inadequate third proportion, and he was NONSUITED accordingly.

Letters from Baſtia mention, that the French in the laſt action which they had with the Mountaineer Corſicans, had a great number of men killed and wounded, and many taken priſoners, the latter of which they carried off with them; and that they had ſent the Commanding Officer word, that if he did not immediately releaſe out of priſon the Corſicans, every one of the priſoners ſhould be put to death.

Yeſterday a cow, not bigger than a large dog, and a calf, brought from the Indies by one of the ſhips juſt arrived, were carried to St. James's as a preſent for the Prince of Wales.

Nov. 13. Early this morning, about one hundred and fifty priſoners under ſentence of tranſportation, were taken from Newgate, and conducted on board a lighter at Blackfriars to be carried down the river, and ſhipped on board the veſſel that is to take them to America. There are amongſt theſe unhappy wretches, two carts loaded with ſick, whoſe ſtench in particular affected many perſons, and may probably produce a malignant diſorder.

A letter from Dublin mentions, that the late Dr. Lucas died in very narrow circumſtances, and that a penſion is talked of for his widow, a young lady whom he married but a few years ago.

Nov. 16. A Spaniſh man of war has taken a Barbary Corſair in the Mediterranean, and carried her into Barcelona; there was another in company, but the ſecond broadſide ſhe received, ſome ſhot went through her ſides, and ſhe ſunk immediately.

It is reported, that articles of impeachment are expected to be exhibited at a proper ſeaſon, againſt two great perſons, which it is thought will be followed by many more.

Letters from Sweden inform, that the young and truly patriotic Monarch of that kingdom, has declared his intention of introducing a law into that country, ſimilar to the Habeas Corpus Act in England.

They write from Minorca, that the harbour of Mahon has juſt been fortified by a very large ſwinging boom and chain ſtrongly cramped with iron, and of ſeveral tons weight, capable of reſiſting the ſhock of ſeveral enemies ſhips of the line abreaſt, ſhould any hoſtile attempt be made.

They write from Gibraltar, that the Spinoſa, a Spaniſh frigate, has juſt put in their with a corſair of Sallee, taken after an obſtinate engagement of three hours.

They write from Liſbon, that Capt. Schmeſkel, commander of a guarda coſta of 36 guns, has brought in there a Sallee privateer, after an engagement, wherein 12 of the privateer's men were killed, and 14 wounded.

The laſt advices from the Weſt Indies are far from being ſatisfactory to the Miniſtry, particularly that received from Admiral Rodney on the Jamaica ſtation, and we are informed that a reinforcement of men of war are ordered for that Iſland.

Extract of a Letter from Dublin, Nov 9.

"Thurſday about two o'clock, the remains of the late Dr. Lucas, a citizen in Parliament for Dublin, were carried from his houſe in Henry-Street, to St. Michan's Church, in the moſt ſolemn and grand manner, preceded and attended by the moſt numerous crowds of people ever known in this kingdom. The coffin was covered with black velvet, and richly adorned with claſps and hinges of Silver, double gilt. The Pall had on it plumes of black feathers, and borders of Eſcutcheons in black and white ſilk, with a cock in the centre, being the Doctor's creſt.

The order of the proceſſion was as follows:

Perſons to clear the way.

The ſervants of the deceaſed, two and two. The Rev. Dean Fletcher, and the clergyman of St. Mary's.

The Rev. Dr. Ledwich of St. Michan's

Two hundred of the young Gentlemen of Trinity-College, in their gowns, two and two.

The children of St. Michan's Pariſh, and the children of the blue-coat Hoſpital, ſinging a ſolemn Dirge.

CONDUCTORS.

The Body adorned with Eſcutcheons.

Supporters of the Pall,

Sir Lucius O'Bren,	Sir William Mayne,
Mr. Flood,	Mr. Brownlow,
Mr. Lowther,	Mr. Huſſey,
Mr. Adderley,	Sir Charles Bingham.

Chief Mourner.

Henry Lucas, Eſq; ſon to the deceaſed.

Mourners,

Earl of Charlemont, Marquis of Kildare, divers of the nobility and gentry.

The ſpeaker and ſeveral members of the houſe of commons.

The city officers.

The Lord Mayor with the Sword of State.

ſeveral Aldermen two and two,

The Sheriffs.

Sheriffs Peers.

The maſters, wardens, officers, and members of the ſeveral Guilds,

All in their reſpective habits and with ſcarfs and hatbands.

Making in the whole upwards of 2000.

"The proceſſion went from Henry-Street, through Mary-Street, and Capel Street, over Eſſex-Bridge, Parliament-Street, along Caſtle-Street, Skinner-Row, [illegible] New-Row, and Bridge-Street, over the Old-Bridge, and along Church-Street to St. Michan's Church; taking that round to ſatisfy the eager deſire of the People in general, who were anxious to pay the laſt tribute of their tears to their protector, their friend, and their repreſentative.

"So great a number of noblemen and gentlemen's carriages were never ſeen together before in Dublin, as upon this occaſion; and notwithſtanding the innumerable crowds of people in all the Streets and paſſages, not one perſon received the leaſt hurt. The funeral proceſſion, from the houſe in Henry-Street to the Church-Yard, was more than two hours in paſſing.

"The following Gentlemen have declared themſelves candidates to repreſent the city of Dublin, viz. Alderman P. Hunt, Forbes, and Geale; Dr. Clement, Vice-Provoſt of our Univerſity, and Henry Lucas, Eſq.

"We hear that Mr. Cunningham is modeling a deſign for a monument to the memory of the late Dr. Lucas: The deſign of which is the ſtatue of liberty letting fall her ſtaff, exhibiting a Baſſo Relievo on a ſhield repreſenting the Doctor defending Hibernia from oppreſſion, with other emblems, &c. the expence will not exceed 500l."

Advices are received from Madrid which mention that orders had been tranſmitted to the Spaniſh Governors in the Weſt-Indies, and ſouth America, to build ſeveral men of war with all expedition.

Notwithſtanding the preſent critical ſituation of affairs with reſpect to Spain, yet there is no Governor nor Lieutenant-Governor now at Gibraltar.

By a Gentleman juſt arrived from Dublin we are informed, that Dr. Lucas, the late celebrated Iriſh Patriot, died ſo poor, that, like a ſecond Ariſtides, his family muſt be taken care of at the public expence; a rare inſtance of modern Patriotiſm, when it is well known he has often refuſed 1000l. a year penſion for himſelf and a Majority for his eldeſt ſon, who has been living ever ſince the laſt peace on Lieutenant's half pay.

We are informed that the Engliſh officers and ſailors, who conducted the Ruſſian tranſports from Reval in Ruſſia to the Mediterranean, were promiſed a proportioned ſhare of the Captures; but in the diſtribution of the prize money of twenty veſſels taken from the French laden with proviſions for the Turks, the officers received 100l. each, but the common men not a ſingle farthing.

By a Gentleman, a native of Great Britain, lately an officer in the Ruſſian ſervice in the Mediterranean, we are informed that the foreign officers and ſailors of all nations, who have entered into the Ruſſian ſervice, are heartily ſick and tired of the ſame, the Ruſſians being very arbitrary and tyrannical, as well as conceited and ignorant. It was thought this was the principal reaſon why the gallant Admiral Elphinſtone, and other officers, quitted that ſervice.

On Sunday evening an expreſs was ſent by the Miniſtry to Paris, and ſoon after another Meſſenger was diſpatched after him, who overtook him near Sittingbourn in Kent, with orders for his immediate return.

The following we are told of as an authentic Narrative: An Algerine Chebeck of 30 Guns, being taken by the Spaniards, the Captain thereof wrote to the Dey, informing him that he was in no condition to have reſiſted, having received much damage in a ſcuffle with a French frigate with whom he maintained an obſtinate diſpute near four hours. The Dey immediately ordered an embargo on all the French ſhips in the port of Algiers, ſeverely reprimanded the French Conſul, and diſpatched a veſſel to Marſeilles to demand ſatisfaction for the inſult he received.

The Dutch ſeem to be under ſome apprehenſions, as the States have ordered a general ſurvey of the Barrier Towns.

A Gentleman offered yeſterday at a coffee-houſe at the Weſt End of the Town, twenty guinea for one hundred, to be paid on Lady day next, if war was not declared between France and Holland before that time.

Nov 25. An extraordinary board of Admiralty is ordered to be held on Monday next, to conſult on affairs of importance; Lord Sandwich and Palmerſton are ſent for to Town for that purpoſe.

We have authority to aſſure the public that the Mogul has left Iliabad, his reſidence, in a moſt private manner, and has actually joined the Mahrattoes, who are encamped, with a powerful army, in the Environs of Delhi. Sujah Dowla pretends to diſapprove of this meaſure, but it is ſuppoſed, that he is in the ſecret. The French, who have 12,000 European Regulars, beſides diſciplined natives, at the Mauritius, are at the bottom of this conſpiracy. They were expected daily to land with a great force on the Malabar coaſt, and to take their route, by the permiſſion of the Mahrattoes, to Delhi, from whence in the Emperor's name, they will moſt certainly invade Bengal.

We hear by the moſt undoubted intelligence, that all hopes of a peace in the Eaſt of Europe are vaniſhed. The ignorance and haughtineſs of the Ottomans prevent it. They know not their own ſituation; and they will not acquieſce in equitable terms. The intrigues of France carry every thing in the Divan, and Auſtria is the dupe of the weak Politics of Louis the Fifteenth.

They write from the Hague of the 6th inſt. that a Foreigner, who ſome time ſince appeared there under the title of a Prince of Syria, and had got money from the Prince Stadtholder and ſeveral of the Burghers, has lately abſconded, and is ſaid to have taken his route for Berlin. He is ſuppoſed to be a German Spy.

They write from Paris of the 4th inſt. that two very eminent perſons in that city had lately been committed to the baſtile for being concerned in a new publication, entitled "A ſurvey of the French finances, or Parliamentary ſupplement."

The breach with Spain ſeems to widen daily, notwithſtanding the pacific meaſures of the Prince de Maſſerano and the Britiſh Miniſtry.

Nov, 23. Before the laſt war we imported from our colonies about 70,000 hogſheads of ſugar annually, which, from our acquiſitions upon the peace, is increaſed to 130,000, notwithſtanding ſugar is dear, owing to the luxury of the age, and the vile ſpirit of engroſſing. Mr. Nath, it is ſaid, in this article alone, turns near a million and a quarter every year, and can raiſe the price of that commodity at his pleaſure.

We are aſſured that there was lately a ſharp altercation between the Premier and Lord Sandwich, reſpecting our preſent diſgraceful ſubmiſſion to the injurious treatment of Spain; when the Firſt Lord of the Admiralty nobly declared, that ſhould the next advices from Admiral Rodney not be in every reſpect ſatisfactory, and war was not inſtantly declared, he would certainly reſign. He ſaid he gloried in being in the ſervice of his King and Country, but that he would not remain at the head of the Admiralty of England, and ſee the Britiſh Flag inſulted with impunity by Spain.

The intereſt of the eſtabliſhed Church ſeems to be upon the decline; moſt of the Directors of the Bank, and other great Companies, with a third of the Court of Aldermen, being Diſſenters.

It is ſaid that three fifths of the ſeamen in the merchants ſervice are Scotchmen.

A letter from Senegal mentions, that a crew of pirates in an armed ſchooner, who had committed divers robberies on the coaſt, finding themſelves purſued by an Engliſhman of war, and that it was impoſſible to eſcape her, blew themſelves up, by ſetting fire to the powder room, and every perſon on board periſhed.

It is reported that Mr. Eyre has received a free pardon, on condition of his diſtributing 2000l. among the different charities in this city.

The phyſicians of a great perſonage now abroad, we are told, are uſing every means to prevent a conſumption in their Royal Patient.

It is ſaid that Dr. Jebb and Mr. Adair, who are gone to attend the Duke of Glouceſter, are allowed 800 guineas per month each.

The Parliament is prorogued by proclamation to the 21ſt of January, then to meet for the diſpatch of the weighty and important affairs of the nation.

DUBLIN, November 6.

CHARACTER OF OUR LATE PATRIOT.

DOCTOR CHARLES LUCAS was born in Dublin, about the beginning of the preſent century, and having received a liberal education, was bred an apothecary. He was a gentleman of unblemiſhed honour, and endued with every virtue that could adorn a public ſtation. As a phyſician, he was eminent, humane and charitable; and as a Senator, unbiaſſed in judgment, invariable in conduct, and of incorruptiable integrity.——In the year 1749, he was voted an enemy to his country, by a venal majority of the moſt abandoned——that ever gave laws to this kingdom (except the preſent) and, like Coriolanus, became an exile, for having juſtly merited the thanks and approbation of his fellow ſubjects. Several years elapſed, during which he improved his medical knowledge, and became eminent in that profeſſion. In the year 1761, he returned to his native country, in conſequence of a NOLLE PROSEQUI, obtained from his preſent Majeſty, and a vacancy happening at the ſame time for the city of Dublin, by the diſſolution of parliament on the demiſe of the late King—he was elected a member for this city, by the grateful ſuffrages of a loyal and free people, who were acquainted with his ſufferings, and had the moſt unreſerved confidence in his patriotic virtues. He then entered on the theatre of public life, and has ever ſince continued to diſcharge his duty to his conſtituents, with a firmneſs not to be parallelled; and with an intrepidity, not to be intimidated. He remained unmoved amidſt every change of government, and every revolution of police, and perſiſted to the laſt moment of his life in an avow'd deteſtation of tyranny and injuſtice, and a love to his country, which no threats could diminiſh, nor bribes could purchaſe. In the midſt of venality and corruption, unplaced, unbribed, and unpenſioned, he ſtemmed the torrent of abuſe, the oppoſition of party, and the frowns of Power. He was the palladium of conſtitutional liberty, in this kingdom, and one of thoſe few friends to the public, who have kept the promiſes made to their conſtituents, through all temptations of advancement and every ſiniſter artifice of miniſterial craft, or vice-royal influence.

Dublin, Nov. 22. By a ſhip which arrived at Corke laſt Saturday, we have received a confirmation of a ſhip-wreck mentioned in a letter from Milford lately. The veſſel was the Earl of Shannon yatch, Capt. Smith, belonging to that port, bound to Milford, laden with 112 cheſts of ſugar. There was nothing ſaved. Every perſon on board periſhed; among whom were ſeveral paſſengers, viz. the Honourable Johanneſ Heyliger, Governor of Berbices; Thomas Grant, Eſq; of Demarary, and his Lady; theſe three paſſengers were a few weeks ago landed at Beerhaven, in the county of Corke, out of a veſſel from Demarary for Rotterdam, laden with ſugar, which put in there by diſtreſs of weather, and of whom Mr. Grant was part owner; but they thinking it more expeditious to go by way of Milford, took their paſſage on board the Earl of Shannon.

CHARLESTOWN, December 16.

On Tueſday laſt, the 10th inſtant, died here, in the ſeventy-ſecond year of his age. Dr. John Moultrie, an eminent Phyſician. He practiſed the healing art in this place, for near fifty years, in it's ſeveral branches of phyſick and surgery, with such success and to such an extent as would have done honour to any character; by nature endowed with several rare qualities of mind, which were carefully cultivated by a liberal Education, first in the languages and Philosophy, and then in physick and surgery; and, while yet a young man, enjoying the singular advantage of a personal acquaintance with the first Surgeons of the age, we cannot wonder that by those helps, and by the example and precepts of those men, he gained that degree of knowledge which shone out with such lustre in every intricate case whereon he was consulted. As a Physician, he was eminently distinguished by his great sagacity, the first and leading quality of that character. He saw, almost intuitively, into the nature of cases, and consequently his endeavour to relieve, was as quick as the relief was certain. His strong, penetrating genius could never be fettered by the systematick Theories and Jargon of the Schools on the one hand, nor could it, on the other, ever be subjected to or debased by a low irrational empiricism. vigorous and discerning, his unbiassed mind enabled him always to see clearly, and judge properly. In surgery he has ever most deservedly, since his first settlement in this place, borne the first character; and in some branches of that art, his skill and success would have intitled him to the first rank in any city in Europe. To his character as a Physician that of a gentleman was ever inseparably united. As a Father happy in seeing his Sons follow those precepts he had given, and make the proper use of that Education which he had himself planned and carefully seen carried into Execution. In private life, easy, cheerful, affable, facetious; fond of his friends, animating the social hour, in the rational enjoyment whereof he knew much happiness was placed; firm and warm in his friendship. His conduct as a citizen and subject was steady, uniform and consistent, unawed and unbiassed, with a heart overflowing with benevolence towards his fellow creatures, he embraced all with the spirit of humanity and true christian charity, and viewed none as his enemies but the enemies of society. Those who knew him not, may, from what has been said, form some, though a very imperfect, Idea of this great and good man; those who knew him, need only consult their own breasts for his character. Justly may we lament the unspeakable loss of a stock of knowledge gained by such extensive practice, and so long Experience; a loss which may to this place, and alas! to the weaker and more delicate part of the society, prove irreparable.

NEW-HAVEN, January 27.

Capt. How, lately arrived from the West-Indies, in Lat. 33 N. Long. 72. spoke a Schooner, Samuel Stone, Master, belonging to South-Carolina, who was blown off that Coast, had been 14 days at Sea, without any other provision than rice boil'd in salt water, his sails tore to pieces, and his People (who were Negroes) so much Frost bitten, that they were unfit for duty. Capt. How supplied them with beef, bread, rum, &c. &c. and the schooner bore for the West-Indies.

PHILADELPHIA, January. 27.

Extract of a Letter to a Gentleman in Burlington, from a Correspondent in London.

"You will soon have a strong proof of the attention of Government to those who have supported the power of Parliament in America, in the appointment of Z. H—d, Esq; to the Government of Maryland, it being now no secret that that province will fall into the hands of the Crown.—It is said that Mr. H——s is to succeed him in his Office in Pennsylvania."

Feb. 3. Last Thursday morning, about 2 o'clock, a terrible fire broke out at Trenton, New-Jersey, which in a few hours consumed eight dwelling houses, and several other Buildings. Mr. Dunlop Adams, Isaac Allen, Esq; and Mr. David Pinkerton, are among the sufferers, the former of whom, it is said, hath lost to the amount of £. 7000.

February 13 We hear that the beginning of last week a farm house, inhabited by some persons who took care of the farm, about two miles from Princeton, belonging to the Rev. John Witherspoon, D. D. President of New Jersey College, took fire and was consumed.

We hear that on Tuesday last, a brig coming up the river, ran ashore near Red Bank, where she is since detained by the ice.

Tuesday night was so very cold that notwithstanding the wind blew hard at N. W. our river was froze from side to side.

To Mr. HOLT,

SIR,

Be pleased to insert the following in your next Paper, and you will oblige a constant Reader,

A. Z.

IT seems generally agreed that contributions raised by a Post-office, stand upon the same foundation with every other internal tax; and have been submitted to from a consideration of the utility of such office, rather than from any acknowledgment of the right to erect one, without the concurrence of our own legislature.

This being admitted, it must follow, that when it is no longer useful it should be no longer tolerated, for it then becomes an unnecessary tax, illegally exacted.

It may very possibly be a question if the post between New York and Albany is not in that predicament, and whether his travelling on the west, instead of the east side of Hudson's-river, hath not in a great measure destroyed his utility. On the east side of the river great pains have been taken (as well by the people themselves, as by Lord Loudon, who found that side fitter for travellers) to make roads; which tho' rough in particular places, are, upon the whole far from bad. As the post has used that road time out of mind, the people have provided taverns for the accommodation of such persons as usually accompany him.

The thick settlements thro' which that road passes, and it's vicinity to the back parts of the New-England colonies, whose chief trade is with New-York and Albany, and who formerly received and transmitted all their letters by the post, rendered him very useful to the public.——At present he travels by a crooked unfrequented road, thro' a country thinly inhabited, in which his passage is frequently interrupted for many days together, by Hudson's river, the Roundout, Great Esopus, and Catt's Kills, over which there are no bridges, and at some of them no boats; so that when they are swelled by freshes, which they frequently are, in the winters and spring, they are often impassable; by which means all communication with the northern part of the colony is cut off, and the King's dispatches (with which he is charged) are greatly delayed.—To what we owe this change I am unable to conceive; certainly not to a concern for the general welfare. This hint may induce those who have the direction of these matters to return the post to his old road. Should it not answer that purpose, it may put the public upon some expedient for removing the inconveniency—by which means an exclusive right to such an office may very possibly be drawn into question.

N. B. Some further thoughts on this subject, are reserved to a future day.

NEW-YORK, Febuary, 20.

From Newburgh, in Ulster county, we learn, that a few Days since, at the Raising of a building there, some Words happened between one Samuel Moor, and David Horton, which soon brought on Blows, when the former was beat to such a Degree that he died in three Days after, Horton, was immediately committed to Gaol.

Saturday last the Brig Liberty, Capt, Prince, arrived here from Cayanne, in seven Weeks,—He sailed from thence in Company with Captain Timmons for Philadelphia, and the 25th of January, Lat. 21, Lon. 65, he spoke with a Sloop from Casco Bay, for Jamaica, all well; and off St. Eustatia, he fell in with Capt. Guilford in a Brig from this Port, bound for Jamaica also, all well on board likewise.

Captain Prince, on his Passage, touched at the Windward Islands, where he was informed, that on the 27th of December last, a most terrible Fire broke out in the Island, of Granada, which burnt down no less than 600 Houses; and that not more then 40 were left standing in the whole Town of Granada.

Captain Prince acquaints us, That Capt. Budden, in a Vessel belonging to Philadelphia, and several others, that were beat off the Coast in the Winter, had got into the Islands; where Flour was selling for 23*s*. per Cent. by Capt. Deane, of Albany, and several others from the Continent.

It may not be amiss to inform the Publick, That we are told the Buoy lately fixed on the S. W. Spit of the East Bank, near Sandy Hook, is carried away by the Ice.

 The Collections which were advertized last Week to be made in the North and New Dutch Churches in this City, could not be on Sunday performed, as two of the Ministers were sick, and unable to preach; it is proposed therefore to execute this generous Design next Sunday.

Capt. Govet, in the Schooner Tryon, arrived from Falmouth, in Philadelphia River, where the Ice prevents her getting up to the City, left that Place the 29th December, Advises that the Packet sailed the 28th, after having made three Attempts—says that one of the Frigates from Faulkland-Island was returned, where our Troops were all landed, in good Order, and that the Spaniards had all left that Island.

AN AMPLE REWARD for taking up and bringing to the Wardens of this Port the Buoy that was placed on the South West Spit of the East Bank, which was carried away by the Ice the 13th Instant.—It was seen on the back of Long-Island near Rockway, on Friday Last, and it is probable it will drive a-Shore on the Coast.

THE dwelling-house and farm of John Ogden, Esq. in Newark, containing about sixty-eight acres, will be sold at publick vendue, at the dwelling-house of James Banks, innholder in said town, on Tuesday the fourteenth day of April next, at three of the clock in the afternoon; the lot on which the house stands, contains about twelve acres of excellent land; the house is large and built of stone, a good kitchen adjoins it, and many necessary and convenient out-houses,—on this lot is perhaps the best orchard in the government, the fruit well chosen, and particularly adapted for the making of such cider as truly merits the name of Newark Cider; there are also on it a sufficient number of other trees, that afford a plenty of the best apples for the table, that are to be found in the country,—among which are pippins of various kinds, &c.

The pleasantness of the situation of fifty acres of the farm on the top of the hill, back of the town of Newark, is so well known, that it would be needless to say any more, than that it has the town of Newark, the Passaick-River, and the Newark Bay in full view, and commands a most elegant prospect of the city of New-York, the town of Bergen, Long-Island, Staten-Island, and other places for many miles round it. Few places are so well calculated for a gentleman's summer retreat as this farm; the prospect is grand, the air extremely pure, and from it's elevation will never be infested with the too common disturbers of a summer's evening's repose; on part of this, there is also a fine young orchard. The remaining six acres lie near the most public road, leading from New-York to Philadelphia, in the neck of land below the town of Newark, the quality of which land is well known to be good. The whole will be sold together or in parts, as shall best suit the purchaser or purchasers. The conditions will be made known at the time of sale, by 20 23 STEPHEN SKINNER.

WHEREAS the Communication between the capital places of New-York and Boston, is of the greatest public concern: The subscribers, living in Hartford, have projected a plan upon proper encouragement, for establishing a STAGE COACH, for the conveyance of passengers through that beautiful part of the country of the upper Post road, to and from these places; and accordingly have actually built two neat Coaches, for structure and convenience equal (if not superior) to the Providence and Portsmouth Stage carriages, and purpose to set off from Hartford on the first Monday of May next, the one for New-York, the other for Boston, to drive four good able Horses; change the set at about half the distance between those places; to arrive in Boston Wednesday night; return out of Boston Thursday noon, and to reach Hartford Saturday night, so as to complete the whole distance from New-York to Boston in the course of one week, and for about the price of the hire of a single Horse. To prevent all altercation and needless delay, every passenger is to enter his name at some place that will be appointed for the purpose, and pay half his passage a convenient time before the hour appointed for the Coach to set off from each place respectively.

And the subscribers would inform any person in New-York and Boston, that if they are disposed to unite with them in their endeavour to serve the public by furnishing a Coach to make a day's Journey out of their Towns upon the road, they will readily co-operate with them in this measure, and would be glad to receive from them the earliest notice of such intention, which will render the purchase of an additional number of Horses unnecessary to us.

JONATHAN BROWN,
NICHOLAS BROWN.

N. B. The STAGE-COACH, will put up at, and set out from Mr. Hull's Tavern, in the Board Way.

FORTY SHILLINGS REWARD.

THE MATTISONIA GRAMMAR-SCHOOL in Lower-Freehold, is still continued under the Patronage of the Rev. Messrs. William Tennent, Charles M'Knight and William Ayers, and Doct. Nathaniel Scudder, who purpose constantly to provide said School with an able Teacher, and visit it as often as may be necessary.

The Gentleman who now presides in the School, and gives singular Satisfaction, is Mr. MOSES ALLEN, late of Nassau-Hall.

He teaches the Latin and Greek Languages with Accuracy, and is particularly attentive to the Reading and Pronunciation of the English Tongue.

The Situation of the School is such, that the Pupils are perhaps as little exposed to Temptation, or any Thing that may corrupt their Morals, as in any Part of America.

N. B. Board, including Washing, Fire-Wood and Candles, is at present no higher than Seven Shillings and Six Pence Proclamation Money, per Week.

POET'S CORNER.

AN ELEGY,
On the Death of the Rev. Mr. JOHN BLAIR, (Minister of the Wall-Kill Congregation,) who died December 8th, 1771.

SHALL the Remains of the good Man I lov'd
In dirge neglected mouldering waste away,
And no kind Bard be by his Conduct mov'd,
Upon his Death to write a friendly Lay?
Be this my Task—tho' us'd in jovial Strains,
Obscurely to divert some tedious Time;
My Lines now mark'd with melancholy Stains,
Laments thy Death in sad lugubrious Rhime.
Thy sad Procession as it mov'd along,
Did fill each Breast with sympathizing Pain,
To see thy pious Consort's Grief so strong.
And three fair Virgins weeping in her Train.
No soft-ey'd Female could restrain the Tear,
When Earth involv'd you in your silent Urn;
Every Spectator Marks of Grief did wear,
In silent Sorrow did thy Exit mourn.
No more thy Speech with Eloquence shall flow;
Thy Tongue no more the Sinner shall affright!
The Drunkard to his former Haunts may go,
And in Debauch and Revels spend the Night.
The Sabbath-breaker and the swearing Wretch,
May now again their wonted Course pursue,
For you no longer can their Conduct watch;
Each slanderous Tongue their Topick may renew.
May still thy Genius hover round the Place,
Deter the Sinner and the godly cheer;
Inspire thy Mourners with becoming Grace,
Thy Loss with pious Fortitude to bear.

To be Sold, or Let,
And entered on immediately,

A Very good grist-mill, together with about 70 acres of land, lying on Mattawan creek, within about half a mile of Middle-Town Point, in East-New-Jersey; the said mill-consists of two pair of stones, and three bolting boxes, all which go by water, which makes it extreamly easy to tend the mills; an extraordinary and large mill house, well calculated for taking in large quantities of grain, The said mills, mill-house, mill-dam, and flood-gates, were all lately put in new and good repair. There is on said land two dwelling-houses, one of which is large and convenient, with a good, large and convenient, shop added to it, suitable for a trader, as the place and situation is well calculated for that business; there is also a barn and sundry other out-houses on said land. The quality of the land, as follows, viz. About 45 acres of wood land, about 7 acres of salt meadow, the remainder clear'd land, on part of which is a good young bearing orchard of about 60 apple trees, all grafts, also some peach and plumb trees. It is a noted place for conveniency to fowling fishing, oystering, clamming, &c. as the land lies on both sides of the creek; and further, the boats that frequently follow coasting between Middle-Town Point and New-York, can go up the creek within a few rods of the mill. For further particulars, and conditons of sale, enquire of Mr. John Burrows, at Middle-Town Point, or Nathaniel Marston, merchant, in New-York, who will agree on reasonable terms, and give an indisputable title for the same.
